Graduates Who Attend a Graduation Ceremony

Purpose 4: Filming, Photography and Publicity	Graduation ceremonies are public celebrations of our students' success. The graduation ceremony may be filmed for the purposes of promoting and publicising graduation and the institution. The recording may also be kept for its archival value. The graduation recording may also be shown online as a live webcast or for people to view in the future. The graduation film may also be shown at future graduation events and receptions or used in the institution's promotional and marketing material. Photographs of the crowds at graduation will be taken by the institution's elected photographers and press photographers. These crowd shots may include images of you and your guests. It is possible that, in addition to the institution's own recording, television companies may be present to record, and broadcast, parts of the graduation ceremony, the area around the graduation hall or building, and interviews with graduates, staff or others in attendance. It is suggested that you avoid any such filming should you wish to avoid being recording in this way. During the graduation ceremony, and before and after in the immediate environs of the graduation hall or building, institution elected photographers will be taking photographs of individuals and groups. These photographs will be used to publicise and celebrate the graduation ceremony and the institution. The photographs will be used by the institution for marketing purposes including the publication of the images on the institution's website, social media channels, printed publicity material, and any other such marketing and promotion uses. It is suggested that you avoid any such photography should you wish to avoid being photographed in this way. Visual images may be held and processed in both printed and electronic format and will be used for no longer than three years from the date they are taken.
Purpose 5: Calling of Name	Your name and award title will be read out at the ceremony immediately prior to you walking across the stage.
Purpose 6: Administration – Guest Tickets	We will need to process the names of your guests to issue you with their tickets, if your institution tickets its graduation.
Purpose 7: Adjustments to Graduation	Information relating to disability and access needs will only be used to make reasonable adjustments at the ceremonies. This information will not be shared with any other department within the university.
