The Franco-Scottish Scholarship

Value £1000

The Franco-Scottish Society aims to promote and strengthen contacts (educational, cultural and social) between Scotland and France. A late member of the Society, Alexander Gray, left a legacy in the form of a trust fund for young people who are studying French in order to enable them to go to France and pursue their studies in an environment where they would have to speak French. Each year, the Franco-Scottish Society awards £1000 for this purpose. Applicants are invited to submit approximately one page of A4 describing how they would use the money to improve their French. Additionally, if applicants have any long-term or career plans that involve a knowledge of French, they would be worth mentioning. After completing their séjour in France, the student is asked to give a short presentation, in French, detailing their experience.
