MSc Sustainable Mountain Development Dissertations

| Titles |
|---|
| "Are Corporate Social Responsibility Programmes, in the mining sector, exacerbating Rural Depopulation? Case Study: Dundee Precious Metals and the support of the Private English Language Secondary School (PELSS) in the mining village of Chelopech, Bulgaria" |
| "Little Ice Age" glacial development and evolution in the Fuegian Andes (Tierra del Fuego, Argentina). Geomorphological reconstruction of the last historic glaciation |
| A case study of ecosystem management:  Great Smoky Mountains National Park |
| A Case study on the use of Looped-walks in the Comeragh Mountains, Ireland |
| A review of current visitor use of the Derry Lodge Area: issues and potential management solutions |
| Adapting to change:  the environmental, economic and social factors driving change in Lake District Hill Farms |
| An investigation into the distribution of the Bilberry bumblebee, Bombus monticola |
| An investigation into the willingness of recreational hill users to contribute financially towards the costs of upland path repair work. |
| Assessment of the sustained ecological damage at a former TNT production site in the Harz Mountains |
| Can a combination of farmed and wild venison production improve the effectiveness of controlling deer densities at the landscape scale in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland? |
| Comelico Staying or Leaving, Reasons to return to an alpine valley |
| Connection to nature as a driving factor in forest regeneration - a study on Scotland and Norway |
| Deriving Anthropocentric and Bio-centric Benefits from Mountain Users in Developed Countries |
| Does the NTS approach to management planning and implementation at Mar Lodge Estate deliver multiple outcomes in a highly significant landscape? |
| Does the NTS approach to nature conservation management planning and implementation at Mar Lodge Estate deliver multiple outcomes in a highly significant landscape? |
| Evaluating the Impacts of and Perceptions Surrounding Second Home Ownership in the Community of Achiltibuie |
| Evidence from camera trap data on the relationship between human and animal presence in the Allt a' Mharcaidh |
| Exploring the Impacts of Anti-Shooting Discourses on Scottish Gamekeepers |
| Exploring the opinions of local stakeholders on the future of sustainable tourism in the Snowdonia National Park since the COVID-19 pandemic |
| Finding Common Ground: Exploring the attitudes of hill-farmers towards upland restoration in the Lake District |
| From Conservation to Wilderness Preservation to Ecological Sensibility: Psychic Structures in the Concept of Wild Nature Illustrated by Psycho-biography |
| Geodiversity and Community: a Transect Across Loch Lomond and the Trossachs National Park |
| How Best to Promote Responsible and Sustainable Electric Mountain Bike Access in Torridon and Applecross |
| Identifying Paths to Girls' Successful Higher Education in the Solukhumbu District, Nepal |
| Integral Rural Development: the mountain case of Oscos-Eo |
| Interactions between hill path users in Kinnoull Hill, Perth, Scotland |
| Investigating the effect of climate change on river flow in a snow influenced catchment |
| Landmanager Attitudes towards Wild Boar in Scotland |
| Mountain Instruction for Sustainability |
| Natural Leaders?  Does the UK Mountain Leader award deliver adequate and effective environmental and sustainability education to trainees? |
| No Net Loss?  A comparative analysis of wetland mitigation and compensation practices for mining in British Columbia and the Yukon |
| Policy Analysis Relating to High Value Non-Timber Forest Products (NTFPs) in Nepal: A Qualitative Analysis |
| Recommendations for, and implementation of, mitigation measures of diffuse water pollution from agriculture in Loch Lomond & the Trossachs National Park: the farm advisors' function |
| Risk perceptions, attitudes and behaviours: perspectives on transceiver use in Scottish mountaineering |
| Rural enterprise development of Non-Wood Forest Products to generate income and provide youth employment in central and eastern Bhutan |
| Social Infrastructure for a Sustainable Mountain Community: Perceived Challenges and Opportunities in Obtaining Community Owner and Operated social Infrastructure |
| Stories going Wild: What can narratives reveal about the values that people place upon wild land in Scotland? |
| Success factors and barriers to mountain entrepreneurship in Bulgaria.  A qualitative study among entrepreneurs in 3 mountain municipalities |
| The evolution of the concept of 'Sustainability' and 'Sustainable Development' in mountain biking literature from 1990-2020.  A critical interpretive narrative |
| The Golden Eagle in the Scottish Highlands: a study of the population in Sutherland over the last two hundred years |
| The Impact of Covid-19 on Sustainable Tourism in UNESCO EuroMAB Mountain Biosphere Reserves |
| The impacts of endurance sports events on two host communities in the Scottish Highlands |
| The Meaning and Relevance of Rewilding in Scotland |
| The Nuts & Bolts of Climbing: Evolving Preferences in Rock Climbing and their Potential Implication for the Crag |
| The role and contribution of educational activities in UNESCO Mountain Biosphere Reserves |
| The Role of Place Attachment in Microadventures as a Promoter of Environmentally Responsible Behaviour and Sustainable Tourism |
| The Role the Mountain Environment of Scotland has within Scottish Secondary Schools as part of the Curriculum |
| The Scottish wildcat, Can wildlife tourism promote its conservation? |
| The selection, evaluation and testing methods for the identification of priority connectivity conservation areas:  a case study in the Pyrenees |
| The Veneration of Mountains: Human Perceptions and Beliefs |
| The Viability of Mountain Village Eco-Centres in Bulgaria and their Role in Sustainable Mountain Development |
| Understanding Perceptions of Wildfire: A view from the Wester Ross Biosphere |
| What does responsible access in the uplands mean conceptually and in practice for mountain bikers and land managers in the Cairngorms National Park? |

Updated August 2022