

Privacy Notice – Social and Vocational Studies

The Data Controller of the information being collected is: UHI Perth, Crieff Road, Perth, PH1 2NX.

For any queries or concerns about how your personal data is being processed you can contact the relevant Data Protection Officer at dataprotectionofficer@uhi.ac.uk or our local Data Protection Lead at dataprotection.perth@uhi.ac.uk

This privacy statement relates to the following process:

Social and Vocational Studies

This process confirms your application for a course with the Social and Vocational Studies department, and details why we collect information from you, what we do with the information we collect, who we may share your information with and your rights under the Data Protection Act 2018 and the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) in relation to that information.

Your information will be used for the following purposes:

Purpose 1: Administration of Applications	Receiving and processing applications, including confirmation of legitimate identity.
Purpose 2: Academic Matters	Academic matters, including: 1 Provision of teaching and learning services (eg registration, assessment, attendance, academic misconduct, investigations); 2 Maintaining student records (to ensure we have the correct data for students). This may include the use of a personal e-mail address where a College e-mail account is not provided; 3 The production of student ID cards.
Purpose 3: Student Support	Providing student support services (for example personal academic support, personal non-academic support and additional support for those who wish to receive it). This may require sharing your data with other College departments, or with external organisations providing student support and/or work placements.
Purpose 4: Accreditation	Processing of completed assessment to external accreditation agencies and awarding bodies for the provision of quality assurance and funding purposes.

Our legal reasons for using the data are:

Purpose	Lawful Basis for Processing
Purpose 1: Administration of applications	Contract – the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract, or to take steps to enter a contract at your request. That contract being between the college and its students, and other parties to provide educational and other products and/or services. Public Task – Use as necessary for performing a task in the public interest or under official authority vested in us. That being the college's public task as an educational establishment.
Purpose 2: Academic matters	Contract – the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract, or to take steps to enter a contract at your request. That contract being between the college and its students, and other parties to provide educational and other products and/or services.
Purpose 3: Student Support	Contract – the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract, or to take steps to enter a contract at your request. That contract being between the college and its students, and other parties to provide educational and other products and/or services.
Purpose 4: Accreditation	Contract – the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract, or to take steps to enter a contract at your request. That contract being between the college and its students, and other parties to provide educational and other products and/or services. Public Task – Use as necessary for performing a task in the public interest or under official authority vested in us. That being the college's public task as an educational establishment.

The data we use includes special category (sensitive) data. You are not obliged to provide this information.

Our legal reason for using this sensitive data, as provided, is:

Processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations of the college in the field of social protection law. All special sensitive data is stored in a secure location. Data is anonymised and used for the sole purpose of providing statistical analysis on protected characteristics to monitor compliance with the Equality Act 2010 and various Government Agendas (for example, Gender Action Plan; Widening Participation).

If you were to withhold the personal information we require for this process, the consequences would be:

The college would be unable to process your enrolment on your course. This would mean that the college would be unable to deliver teaching or provide student services to meet additional support needs, and your college account would be cancelled.

Your data will, or may, be shared with the following recipients or categories of recipient:

- The University of the Highlands and Islands, Partnership Colleges and Learning Centres
- Highlands and Islands Students' Association (HISA)
- Scottish Funding Council (SFC) including Assigned Auditors
- Scottish Government
- Colleges Scotland
- Education Scotland
- Awarding bodies and accreditation agencies associated with your studies (for example: SQA, City and Guilds, CMI, British Council)
- Organisations aligned to your course for the purposes of student support and/or work placements (for example: Perth and Kinross Council, PUSH, Letham Hub, Rascals Cafe)
- Where we are obliged to do so by law including court orders or other regulatory bodies

Your data will be retained as specified under the terms of the College's Records Management Policy:

The following rights are rights of data subjects:

- The right to access your personal data
- The right to rectification if the personal data we hold about you is incorrect
- The right to restrict processing of your personal data

The following rights apply only in certain circumstances:

- The right to withdraw consent at any time if consent is our lawful basis for processing your data
- The right to object to our processing of your personal data
- The right to request erasure (deletion) of your personal data
- The right to data portability

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office about our handling of your data.
